

Please, do not further diminish the poultry media regulation now in place. We need more diversity of media input, not less, in this time of global and domestic uncertainty. Otherwise, you will be part of a process of further weakening one of the foundational principles upon which our government is based--the freedom of speech.

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration!

Laurie Ehlhardt, Ph